

Harry Potter in the United Kingdom

Places in the UK where Harry Potter was filmed

Platform 9 and $\frac{3}{4}$ - King's Cross Station in London.

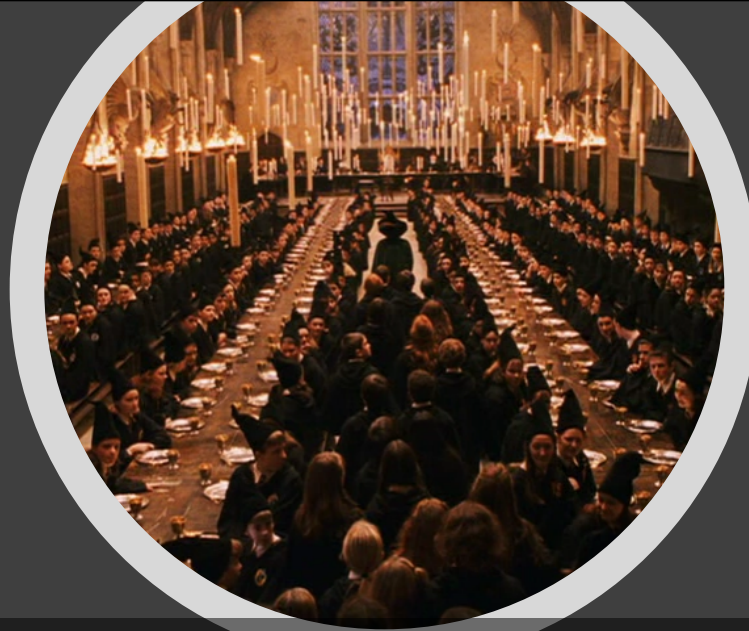

Diagon Alley-Leadenhall Market in London

Hogwarts Courtyard - Alnwick Castle.

4 privet drive

Great Hall - Christ Church College, Oxford.

Hagrid's hut - north york moors

Places in UK where Harry Potter was filmed

Platform 9 and $\frac{3}{4}$ - king's cross station in London.

Platform Nine and Three-Quarters) - a magical platform at King's Cross Station in London. The Hogwarts Express departed from there, taking students to the Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry.

Hogwarts courtyard - alnwick castle.

Alnwick Castle - a castle located in England in the town of Alnwick in Northumberland. It is a tourist attraction. There is a richly equipped library in the castle, and in the adjacent areas there are gardens with numerous fountains. Alnwick Castle was the movie set for all Harry Potter parts.

Diagon Alley - Leadenhall Market in London.

Diagon Alley is a cobblestoned shopping area for wizards and witches, and it was Harry Potter's first introduction to the wizarding world.

Hagrid's hut - north york moors

- The unique building resembling a hut where the giant used to work is located in the North York Moors National Park in North Shire. Its owner is Carol Cavendish, a die-hard fan of Harry Potter books.

Privet drive

Privet Drive - Muggle street in Little Whinging. The Dursleys lived at number four, and in 1981 the wizard, Harry Potter, moved in

Great hall - christ church college, oxford

Great Hall - the main Hogwarts hall located near the entrance hall; the largest room in the school, where students used to gather for a feast

Sources

- Wikipedia
- Google grafika