Location

3 May Constitution School Complex in Pobiedziska Letnisko is located in a picturesque town Pobiedziska, in Great Poland Region, 25 km from Poznań, on the Piast Route. The Promno Landscape Park situated nearby enables students to take advantage of unusual benefits when spending time during their breaks or after school.

The school history

The building of the school in Pobiedziska Letnisko started in the summer 1989. Cardinal Józef Glemp, the Primate of Poland, took part in the corner stone laying ceremony on 12th September 1990 and began the second stage of the investment.

The building works were completed in 1996 following the decision on school types:

- primary school for younger children living in a housing estate - Pobiedziska Letnisko
- high school for students from Pobiedziska Commune

The school history

The new school
opening ceremony
took place on 2nd September 1996.

The school history

The ceremony of giving the school a name after the Polish 3 May Constitution was another important event in the history of the school, which was held in 2002, on the day of the constitution adoption anniversary, afterward in 2006 the school received an official flag.

The school was evolving. In 2003 the gymnasium and classrooms for secondary school were built.

3 May Constitution School Complex in Pobiedziska Letnisko is attended by pupils and students at every level of education: nursery, primary school, secondary school and high school. The final high school exam (matura) was taken by students for the first time in 2000.

The school history

The concept of giving the school
the name after 3 May Constitution
arose to celebrate upcoming 200 anniversary of that event.

It was confirmed in the foundation act signed on 12th September 1990.
